Request for Reconsideration Policy

Request for Reconsideration Form

Please fill out the following form, if you are requesting reconsideration of a library material or program. A separate form must be completed for each material or program being challenged. Requests for reconsideration of materials or programs will only be accepted from Belmont Count District Library Card Holders and/or residents of the Belmont County District Library service area.

Question 1:
What type of material or program are you commenting on? Please include the name of the material, the material type (DVD, book, etc.), the author/performer/producer of the material, and the date you became aware of the material. If you are commenting on a program, please include the title, topic, target audience, date, and time of the program. Please also include how you became aware of the material or program:
